

I want to express my opinion that radio broadcast ownership should be tightly regulated and strict limits (more so than the current limits) must be enforced by the FCC in order to maintain a truly democratic and open media marketplace.

Broadcast media, perhaps one of the most vital tools of American free speech, cannot be dominated by international corporate monopolies. Otherwise independent voices, the backbone of American Freedom, will be tremendously inhibited.

Thank you

David Eilert